

4 TYPES OF NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATIONS

Nonprofit organizations come in many forms, each serving different purposes within the community and operating under specific legal frameworks. Here's a list of the various types of nonprofit organizations that MSP's can partner with.

Charitable and Service-Based Nonprofits

These organizations primarily focus on providing direct services, support, and benefits to the community. They include public charities, private foundations, healthcare organizations, schools, universities, and charitable trusts.

Advocacy and Social Welfare

These are lobbying and advocacy groups. They include civic leagues (voter leagues), PAC's, and social advocacy organizations.

Professional and Recreational

These NPO's serve their members interest rather than the broader public. They include country clubs, labor unions, chambers of commerce, fraternities and sororities.

International and Specialized NonProfits

These operate globally or serve very special roles within the nonprofit sector. They include veteran's organizations, research institutes, credit unions, mutual insurance companies and international NGO's
