

Logs and Specks (Matthew 7:1-6)

Paul Goebel

Tuesday Morning Men's Bible Study

Park Cities Presbyterian Church

April 19, 2016

Matt. 7:1 “Judge not, that you be not judged. 2 For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you. 3 Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? 4 Or how can you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ when there is the log in your own eye? 5 You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye.

Matt. 7:6 “Do not give dogs what is holy, and do not throw your pearls before pigs, lest they trample them underfoot and turn to attack you.

Table Discussion Questions:

---

1. Why do we abhor judgmentalism?
2. How is judgmentalism like idolatry?
3. Why is hypocrisy a failure to understand the Gospel?
4. How is hypocrisy a universal human problem? In what ways are you prone to hypocrisy?
5. If we are not to judge others, then what is our role in Christian “accountability”?
6. Should we confront Christian brothers in their sin? How?
