Questions for Conversation

1. What does it mean for your life that Jesus is the “faithful and true witness,” with regard to His knowledge of you and promises to you?
2. How do you understand the Lord’s words, “You are neither cold nor hot,” and “you are lukewarm” about the Laodiceans? How would you describe their condition? How might you apply this to some Christians or professing Christians today?
3. How would we obey Jesus’ words to “buy from me gold refined in the fire, so you can become rich?”
4. What else did Jesus say the people could receive from Him, in verse 18, and how would you apply these offered provisions to our lives?
5. What is Jesus offering in verse 20?
6. As you think through all the churches, as well as Jesus’ radiant appearance to John, what has impressed you about Jesus and His people? What challenge or encouragement will you take for your own life?
