

Saturday, January 31

Breakfast and Devotions – 9:00am // Fellowship Hall
Breakout Sessions – 10:00am and 11:00am // Level Two
Sandra McCracken in Concert – 7:00pm // Sanctuary

Sunday, February 1

Morning Worship – 9:30am and 11:00am // Sanctuary
Evening Worship – 6:00pm // Sanctuary
Food and Fellowship – 7:00pm // Grand Hall

Devotions: The Foundation of Fellowship

David Gibson – Minister, Trinity Church (Aberdeen, Scotland)

¹⁷ Now this I say and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer walk as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds.

¹⁸ They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart.

¹⁹ They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity.

²⁰ But that is not the way you learned Christ! –

²¹ assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus,

²² to put off your old self, which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires,

²³ and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds,

²⁴ and to put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.

Ephesians 4:17-24

Notes

Breakout Sessions (10:00-10:45)

The Fellowship of the Holy Spirit in Christian Life (The Loft)

Kelly Kopic – Chair of Theology and Culture, Covenant College

The Holy Spirit not only brings us into communion with God but shapes Christian life. Better understanding this reality can both inform our worship and transform our lives. Join award-winning author Kelly Kopic as he shares from his recent book, “Christian Life.”

Forgiveness and Fellowship in a Cancel Culture (Cambridge Hall)

Mark McDowell – Executive Director, RTS Dallas; Theologian in Residence, PCPC

When people disagree or sin against you, healthy Christian fellowship can feel difficult to maintain. And in our cancel culture, it can even feel unnecessary. Join us as we explore the Bible’s rich resources for continuing our fellowship through practices like forgiveness, charity, and love.

God’s Grace in Our Parishes (Mezzanine B)

Robby Higginbottom – Assistant Pastor of Community Life

As the people of God, we are the church, but we spend most of our time away from the church building scattered in the places the Lord has called us to live and work and play. And we have a great opportunity to connect to Christ and one another, to abide in Christ, and to extend Christ in these places! Whether you’re interested or already involved, this session will explore why we do parish ministry and how you can be involved.

Notes

Breakout Sessions (11:00-11:45am)

The Fellowship of the Holy Spirit in Christian Life (The Loft)

Kelly Kopic – Chair of Theology and Culture, Covenant College

The Holy Spirit not only brings us into communion with God but shapes Christian life. Better understanding this reality can both inform our worship and transform our lives. Join award-winning author Kelly Kopic as he shares from his recent book, “Christian Life.”

Community and Creativity (Cambridge Hall)

Sandra McCracken – Singer / Songwriter and Author

How can we cultivate our creative gifts for God’s glory and our good in a culture of individualism and achievement? Creative work often flourishes in the context of supportive, like-minded communities of people who can encourage, challenge, and collaborate with you. Join Sandra McCracken as she helps us consider how to engage with people and places that are vibrant and life-affirming, and to consider ways to better organize or galvanize creative people and resources.

Seeking Sanctification Together: How Relational Intimacy Leads to Renewal (Mezzanine B)

John Paul Schulze – Director of Young Adults, PCPC

In 1 Peter 1:14-16, Peter calls us to not be conformed to our passions but to be holy as God is holy. Why is it important to seek this sanctification together in healthy, intimate Christian relationships? Join us as we share stories and resources to equip us to live as men and women who are being renewed together by God’s grace.

Notes