Canons of Dort, V.1-3

Those whom God, according to His purpose, calls to the communion of His Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, and regenerates by the Holy Spirit, He also delivers from the dominion and slavery of sin, though in this life He does not deliver them altogether from the body of sin and from the infirmities of the flesh.

Hence spring forth the daily sins of infirmity, and blemishes cleave even to the best works of the saints. These are to them a perpetual reason to humiliate themselves before God and to flee for refuge to Christ crucified; to mortify the flesh more and more by the spirit of prayer and by holy exercises of piety; and to press forward to the goal of perfection, until at length, delivered from this body of death, they shall reign with the Lamb of God in heaven.

By reason of these remains of indwelling sin, and also because of the temptations of the world and of Satan, those who are converted could not persevere in that grace if left to their own strength. But God is faithful, who, having conferred grace, mercifully confirms and powerfully preserves them therein, even to the end.

Public Confession

O Lord, we bless You that we who turn away from You may return to You immediately, and be welcomed without anything to commend us, notwithstanding all our former backslidings. Our souls have been greatly distressed because we did not suitably come to the fountain that purges away all sin. We have labored too much for spiritual life, peace of conscience, progressive holiness, in our own strength. We beg You, show us the arm of all might; Give us to believe that You can do for us more than we ask or think, and that, though we backslide, Your love will never let us go, but will draw us back to You with everlasting cords; that You provide grace in the wilderness, and can bring us out, leaning on the arm of our Beloved. Keep us solemn, devout, faithful, resting on free grace for assistance, acceptance, and peace of conscience.

Private Confession

Hymn No. 36 (Psalm 139) "Lord, Thou Hast Searched Me"

PUERNOBISNASCITUR

Promise and Comfort of the Gospel of Jesus Christ

Christ Himself bore our sins in His body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By His wounds you have been healed. For you were straying like sheep, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.
