Public Confession

Minister: The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, You will not despise. Psalm 51.17

People: Almighty God, who are rich in mercy to all those who call upon You, hear us as we come to You humbly confessing our sins and transgressions, and imploring Your mercy and forgiveness. We have broken Your holy laws by our deeds and by our words, and by the sinful affections of our hearts. We confess before You our disobedience and ingratitude, our pride and willfulness, and all our failures and shortcomings toward You and toward our fellow men. Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father, and of Your great goodness grant that we may hereafter serve and please You in newness of life, through the merit and mediation of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Private Confession

The Comfort and Assurance of the Gospel of Jesus Christ

Minister: The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. As a father shows compassion to his children, so the Lord shows compassion to those who fear Him. For He knows our frame; He remembers that we are dust. But the steadfast love of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear Him, and His righteousness to children's children, to those who keep His covenant and remember to do His commandments. Psalm 103:8, 13-14, 17-18
Lift up your hearts!

People: We lift them up to the Lord.

Minister: Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

People: It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

Minister: It is right and good and a joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks unto You, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God. Therefore, with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify Your glorious Name; evermore praising You, and singing:

Please Stand.

(all singing)

"He Is Not Here"

Russell Nagy

"Twas at the break of day when women came with spices to anoint our Lord, and walking to the tomb, said, "'Who will move the mighty stone that bars the door?" Then, behold, they found no stone; but a man was standing there instead, dazzling bright in raiment white, saying, "Jesus is not dead! He is not here! He is risen! See, the tomb is empty where He lay." Jesus rose on Easter Day. When John and Peter heard the strange account, they doubted that it could be true; but running there to find the empty tomb, they suddenly believed it too. In the place where Jesus lay sat the burial clothing of the dead laid aside like death denied, for He was no longer dead! Alleluia! And so we do proclaim on Easter Day that Jesus is not in the grave but risen from the dead just as He said in majesty and pow'r to reign.

Personal Prayer and Counsel

"Be devoted to one another in brotherly love; give preference to one another in honor . . . rejoicing in hope, persevering in tribulation, devoted to prayer, contributing to the needs of the saints, practicing hospitality." Romans 12.10, 12, 13

We want so much to come along side you in brotherly love and hospitality by your allowing us to be in prayer for your salvation or any need you may have. Please join us in Room 261 (the far south end of Fellowship Hall) following the worship service where our Elders and prayer leaders are available and eager to meet with you and pray with you in complete confidence.

The flowers in our worship services this morning are given to the glory of God and in memory of the men and women who have died defending our country and our freedom.

"How sweet are Your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth."

Psalm 119:103

The great desire of the elders is that PCPC be a church immersed in the Word of God. In order to see this happen, we have provided each household a copy of the One Year Bible. If you have yet to receive your copy of the One Year Bible, they are available on a table in the south foyer. For your convenience this week's reading is listed below. This information is also posted on the PCPC web site: www.pcpc.org.
