Public Confession of Sin

O Father of mercies, rich in mercy toward all that call upon You; I have sinned against heaven and before You, neither am I worthy to be called a son, neither am I worthy to be made a hired servant, no, not the lowest of them all. O Lord, be pleased to help my impenitence; be merciful to me a sinner. Deep calls unto deep, the deep of our misery unto the deep of Your mercy. Where sin abounds, let grace much more abound; overcome our evil with Your good. O Christ who takes away the sins of the world, take away my sins. I have deserved death, but even now I appeal from the seat of Your justice to the throne of Your grace.

*The Scripture Reading

Luke 5.17-26

Susan Nowlin 9:30

Candy Hill 11:00

On one of those days, as He was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting there, who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was with Him to heal. <sup>18</sup> And behold, some men were bringing on a bed a man who was paralyzed, and they were seeking to bring him in and lay him before Jesus, <sup>19</sup> but finding no way to bring him in, because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down with his bed through the tiles into the midst before Jesus. <sup>20</sup> And when He saw their faith, He said, "Man, your sins are forgiven you." <sup>21</sup> And the scribes and the Pharisees began to question, saying, "Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?" <sup>22</sup> When Jesus perceived their thoughts, He answered them, "Why do you question in your hearts? <sup>23</sup> Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'? <sup>24</sup> But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"—He said to the man who was paralyzed—"I say to you, rise, pick up your bed and go home." <sup>25</sup> And immediately he rose up before them and picked up what he had been lying on and went home, glorifying God. <sup>26</sup> And amazement seized them all, and they glorified God and were filled with awe, saying, "We have seen extraordinary things today."

During the cup
Please use the following scripture for private meditation:

Psalm 32

*Blessed is the one whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
Blessed is the man against whom the Lord counts no iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit.
For when I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.
For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me; my strength was dried up as by the heat of summer.
I acknowledged my sin to You, and I did not cover my iniquity;
I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord," and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.
Therefore let everyone who is godly offer prayer to You at a time when You may be found; surely in the rush of great waters, they shall not reach him.
You are a hiding place for me; You preserve me from trouble;
You surround me with shouts of deliverance.
I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;
I will counsel you with my eye upon you.
Be not like a horse or a mule, without understanding, which must be curbed with bit and bridle, or it will not stay near you.
Many are the sorrows of the wicked, but steadfast love surrounds the one who trusts in the Lord.
Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, O righteous, and shout for joy, all you upright in heart!*

You may dispose of your cup at the doorways as you leave.
