Don't be troubled that I say I go away; it is best for you I go now. If I go, I make a place for you; and I'll come to take you some day. I will send the Holy Spirit to you to lead you in truth, to guide what you do. He'll remind you then of all I have said; and I will always be with you. Take and eat my body broken; take and drink the blood I offer. What I do for you, you know not. If you love Me, you will obey.*

I address my verses to the king;
my tongue is like the pen of a ready scribe.
You are the most handsome of the sons of men;
grace is poured upon your lips;
therefore God has blessed you forever.
Gird your sword on your thigh, O mighty one,
in your splendor and majesty!
In your majesty ride out victoriously for the cause of truth and meekness and righteousness;
let your right hand teach you awesome deeds!
Your arrows are sharp
in the heart of the king's enemies;
the peoples fall under you.
Your throne, O God, is forever and ever.
The scepter of your kingdom is a scepter of uprightness;
you have loved righteousness and hated wickedness.*

CALVARY'S ANTHEM

HEAVENLY FATHER,

Thou hast led me singing to the cross where I fling down all my burdens and see them vanish, where my mountains of guilt are levelled to a plain, where my sins disappear, though they are the greatest that exist,
    and are more in number than the grains of fine sand;

For there is power in the blood of Calvary to destroy sins more than can be counted even by one from the choir of heaven.

Thou hast given me a hillside spring that washes clear and white,
    and I go as a sinner to its waters, bathing without hindrance in its crystal streams.

At the cross there is free forgiveness for poor and meek ones,
    and ample blessings that last forever;

The blood of the Lamb is like a great river of infinite grace with never any diminishing of its fullness as thirsty ones without number drink of it.

O Lord, forever will Thy free forgiveness live that was gained on the mount of blood;

In the midst of a world of pain
    it is a subject for praise in every place a song on earth, an anthem in heaven, its love and virtue knowing no end.

I have a longing for the world above where multitudes sing the great song, for my soul was never created to love the dust of earth.

Though here my spiritual state is frail and poor,
    I shall go on singing Calvary's anthem.

May I always know that a clean heart full of goodness is more beautiful than the lily, that only a clean heart can sing by night and by day,
    that such a heart is mine when I abide at Calvary.
