Profession of Faith

The Rev. Bill Lamberth

The Lord Jesus Christ,
true God and at the same time a true and righteous man,
is our mediator, given to us to completely deliver us
and make us right with God.

The holy gospel tells us this:

God began to reveal the gospel already in Paradise;
later God proclaimed it by the holy patriarchs and prophets and foreshadowed it by the sacrifices
and other ceremonies of the law;
and finally, God fulfilled it through His own beloved Son.

Public Confession of Sin

Mr. Lamberth

Hear my prayer, O LORD;

give ear to my pleas for mercy!

In Your faithfulness answer me in Your righteousness!

Enter not into judgment with Your servant,

for no one living is righteous before You.

Answer me quickly, O LORD!

My spirit fails!

Hide not Your face from me,

lest I be like those who go down to the pit.

Let me hear in the morning of Your steadfast love,

for in You I trust.

Make me know the way I should go,

for to You I lift up my soul.

Deliver me from my enemies, O LORD!

I have fled to You for refuge.
Teach me to do Your will,
for You are my God!
Let Your good Spirit lead me
on level ground!

Psalm 143.1-2, 7-10

Private Confession

Words of Assurance and Pardon of the Gospel

There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, He condemned sin in the flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

Romans 8.1-4

Friends, believe the good news of the Gospel: in Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

arr. Camp Kirkland

God of our Fathers, whose Almighty hand leads forth in beauty all the starry band of shining worlds in splendor through the skies, our grateful songs before Thy throne arise.

Thy love divine hath led us in the past, in this free land by Thee our lot is cast; be Thou our ruler, guardian, guide and stay, Thy Word our law, Thy paths our chosen way.

Refresh Thy people on their toilsome way, lead us from night to never ending day; fill all our lives with love and grace divine, and glory laud, and praise be ever Thine.

The Scripture Reading: Matthew 5.17-20

Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them.

¹⁸ For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished.

¹⁹ Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the Kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the Kingdom of heaven.

²⁰ For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the Kingdom of heaven.

The Sermon

“A Greater Righteousness”

Mr. Williams 8:00

Mr. Higginbottom 9:30/11:00

People: Therefore, with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify Your glorious Name; evermore praising You, and singing:

Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

SERMON NOTES

Matthew 5:17-20
“A Greater Righteousness”

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

The following questions help us dialog with the sermon, music, and liturgy in this morning's worship service. Together, these elements provide space for reflection and prayer during personal devotions, group studies, and family worship.

1. How would you describe the righteousness of the scribes and the Pharisees? (see Luke 18.9-14; Matthew 23.1-36; Luke 15.25-32) How do we settle for this kind of righteousness?
2. How is the righteousness that God requires greater than the righteousness of the scribes and the Pharisees?
3. What does Jesus mean when He says that He has not come to abolish the Law or the Prophets, but to fulfill them? (see Luke 24.13-49; 2 Corinthians 1.20)
4. How does Jesus relate to the Old Testament? Do we share the same doctrine of Scripture?
5. Why is Matthew 5.20 bad news and good news at the same time?
6. What is the Lord teaching us about living a righteous life in Christ? How should we pray for His help in applying what we are learning?
