that You are the only source of everything good,
and that neither our work and worry
nor Your gifts
can do us any good without Your blessing.
And so help us to give up our trust in creatures and trust in You alone.

Public Confession of Sin

O most great, most just and gracious God,
 You are of purer eyes than to behold iniquity.
 We confess that we have neglected and abused Your holy worship;
 we have dishonored our superiors,
 and neglected our inferiors;
 we have dealt unjustly and uncharitably with our neighbors,
 not loving them as ourselves,
 nor doing to others as we would have them do to us.
 We have not sought first Your Kingdom and righteousness,
 nor been contented with our daily bread.
 Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father.
 Be reconciled to us, and let the blood of Jesus Christ cleanse us from all our sins.

Private Confession

Words of Assurance and Pardon of the Gospel

But if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin. 1 John 1.7

Friends, believe the good news of the Gospel: in Jesus Christ we are forgiven!

Some glad morning when this life is o'er, I'll fly away; to a home on God's celestial shore, I'll fly away. I'll fly away, oh Glory, I'll fly away; when I die, hallelujah, by and by, I'll fly away!

This world is not my home, I'm just a passing through; my treasures are laid up somewhere beyond the blue; the angels beckon me from heaven's open door, and I can't feel at home in this world anymore. O Lord, You know, I have no friend like You; if heaven's not my home, then Lord, what will I do? The angels beckon me from heaven's open door, and I can't feel at home in this world anymore.

My Savior pardoned me from guilt and shame I know; I'll trust His saving grace while trav'ling here below; I know He'll welcome me at heaven's open door, and I can't feel at home in this world anymore.

The saints in glory land are shouting victory; I want to join their band and live eternally; I hear the sweetest praise from heaven's open door, and I can't feel at home in this world anymore.

The Scripture Reading: Matthew 6.9-13; Exodus 16.1-12

Matthew

Pray then like this: “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be Your Name.

¹⁰ Your Kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

¹¹ Give us this day our daily bread,

¹² and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.

¹³ And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.”

Exodus

They set out from Elim, and all the congregation of the people of Israel came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had departed from the land of Egypt.

² And the whole congregation of the people of Israel grumbled against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness,

³ and the people of Israel said to them, “Would that we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the meat pots and ate bread to the full, for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.”

⁴ Then the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I am about to rain bread from heaven for you, and the people shall go out and gather a day's portion every day, that I may test them, whether they will walk in My law or not.

⁵ On the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it will be twice as much as they gather daily.”

⁶ So Moses and Aaron said to all the people of Israel, “At evening you shall know that it was the LORD who brought you out of the land of Egypt,

⁷ and in the morning you shall see the glory of the LORD, because He has heard your grumbling against the LORD. For what are we, that you grumble against us?”

⁸ And Moses said, “When the LORD gives you in the evening meat to eat and in the morning bread to the full, because the LORD has heard your grumbling that you grumble against Him—what are we? Your grumbling is not against us but against the LORD.”

⁹ Then Moses said to Aaron, “Say to the whole congregation of the people of Israel, ‘Come near before the LORD, for He has heard your grumbling.’”

¹⁰ And as soon as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the people of Israel, they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

¹¹ And the LORD said to Moses,

¹² “I have heard the grumbling of the people of Israel. Say to them, ‘At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread. Then you shall know that I am the LORD your God.’”

SERMON NOTES

Matthew 6.9-13; Exodus 16.1-12
“Daily Bread”

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

The following questions help us dialog with the sermon, music, and liturgy in this morning's worship service. Together, these elements provide space for reflection and prayer during personal devotions, group studies, and family worship.

1. What are you worried about? What does worry reveal about your understanding of God?
2. What does the providence of God have to do with His provision?
3. What does prayer have to do with our dependence on God? Why is dependence so hard for us?
4. Is there anything in your life that you are not content with? Why is discontentment so dangerous? How does gratitude cultivate a heart of contentment?
5. What does trust have to do with genuine faith? What does it mean to trust in Jesus?
6. Jesus said, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to Me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in Me shall never thirst." (See John 6.30-36)
How does this promise change the way you pray for daily bread?

Prayer Prompts:

*Use the following prompts to guide you in prayer this week: Matthew 6.9-13
"Daily Bread"*

1. Praise God for His faithful provision for you today using the words of Psalm 23.1, "The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want."
2. Ask God to calm your anxieties and renew your commitment to Him using the words of Matthew 6.33, "But seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you."
3. Pray for God to provide for those in our city and world who are in need of food, clothing, housing, employment, and other basic provisions for daily life.
4. Give God thanks for specific ways He has provided for you recently.
