CELEBRATION OF THE LORD'S TABLE

8:00, 9:30, and 11:00 a.m.

All Saints' Sunday

Today is All Saints' Sunday. Past to present, we remember our lineage of faith and give thanks to God for the saints of all generations. God unites all of us with Himself in this great tapestry—bringing Him great glory and us great joy.

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.” Hebrews 12.1-2

O Almighty God,
who hast knit together Thine elect
in one communion and fellowship,
in the mystical body of Thy Son Christ our Lord;
Grant us grace so to follow Thy blessed saints
in all virtuous and godly living,
that we may come to those unspeakable joys which Thou hast prepared for those who unfeignedly love Thee;
through the same, Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Public Confession of Sin

Great was Your mercy in ascending to heaven
in being crowned and enthroned there to intercede for me,
there to help me in temptation,
there to open the eternal book,
there to receive me finally to Yourself.

Great was Your wisdom in devising this means of salvation;
bathe my soul in rich consolations of Your resurrection life.

O God, pardon all my sins,
known and unknown,
felt and unfelt,
confessed and not confessed,
remembered or forgotten.

Help me to be a holy, happy person,
free from every wrong desire,
from everything contrary to Your mind.

Grant me more and more of the resurrection life:
may it rule me, may I walk in its power,
and be strengthened through its influence.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever, forevermore. Our Father, Amen.

SERMON NOTES

Matthew 6.9-13

“The Person, the Prayer, and the Power over Temptation”

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

The following questions help us dialog with the sermon, music, and liturgy in this morning's worship service. Together, these elements provide space for reflection and prayer during personal devotions, group studies, and family worship.

1. What are the various meanings of the word "temptation"?
2. What is Jesus teaching us to pray when we pray, "And lead us not into temptation"?
3. How does Jesus' own experience with temptation instruct us how we are to respond to temptation? (See Matthew 4 and Hebrews 2.18)
4. Name the temptations you regularly face:
5. How do you ordinarily go about dealing with temptation?
6. How does Jesus' teaching and experience equip us to resist temptation?
