ORDER FOR THE WORSHIP OF GOD

November 5, 2023
8:00, 9:30, and 11:00 a.m.

All Saints' Sunday

Today is All Saints' Sunday. Past to present, we remember our lineage of faith and give thanks to God for the saints of all generations. God unites all of us with Himself in this great tapestry—bringing Him great glory and us great joy.

“Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.” Hebrews 12.1-2

Welcome and Announcements

The Rev. Pete Hatton 8:00/9:30

The Rev. Tommy Overton 11:00

O Almighty God,

who hast knit together Thine elect

in one communion and fellowship,

in the mystical body of Thy Son Christ our Lord;

Grant us grace so to follow Thy blessed saints

in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys which Thou hast prepared for those who unfeignedly love Thee;

through the same, Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Public Confession of Sin

Mr. Hatton 8:00/9:30

Mr. Overton 11:00

Great was Your mercy in ascending to heaven in being crowned and enthroned there to intercede for me,
 there to help me in temptation,
 there to open the eternal book,
 there to receive me finally to Yourself.

Great was Your wisdom in devising this means of salvation;
 bathe my soul in rich consolations of Your resurrection life.

O God, pardon all my sins,
 known and unknown,
 felt and unfelt,
 confessed and not confessed,
 remembered or forgotten.

Help me to be a holy, happy person,
 free from every wrong desire,
 from everything contrary to Your mind.

Grant me more and more of the resurrection life:
 may it rule me, may I walk in its power,
 and be strengthened through its influence.

The Lord’s my Shepherd, I’ll not want. He makes me down to lie in pastures green: He leadeth me the quiet waters by. My soul He doth restore again; and me to walk doth make within the paths of righteousness, e’en for His own name’s sake. Yea, though I walk through death’s dark vale, yet will I fear no ill: For Thou art with me and Thy rod and staff me comfort still. My table Thou has furnished in presence of my foes; my head Thou dost with oil anoint, and my cup overflows. Goodness and mercy all my life shall surely follow me: and in my Father’s heart always my dwelling place shall be.

9:30/11:00

*The Scripture Reading: Revelation 6.1-17

Now I watched when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures say with a voice like thunder, "Come!"

² And I looked, and behold, a white horse! And its rider had a bow, and a crown was given to him, and he came out conquering, and to conquer.

³ When He opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, "Come!"

⁴ And out came another horse, bright red. Its rider was permitted to take peace from the earth, so that people should slay one another, and he was given a great sword.

⁵ When He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Come!" And I looked, and behold, a black horse! And its rider had a pair of scales in his hand.

⁶ And I heard what seemed to be a voice in the midst of the four living creatures, saying, "A quart of wheat for a denarius, and three quarts of barley for a denarius, and do not harm the oil and wine!"

⁷ When He opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature say, "Come!"

⁸ And I looked, and behold, a pale horse! And its rider's name was Death, and Hades followed him. And they were given authority over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword and with famine and with pestilence and by wild beasts of the earth.

⁹ When He opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the witness they had borne.

¹⁰ They cried out with a loud voice, "O Sovereign Lord, holy and true, how long before You will judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?"

¹¹ Then they were each given a white robe and told to rest a little longer, until the number of their fellow servants and their brothers should be complete, who were to be killed as they themselves had been.

¹² When He opened the sixth seal, I looked, and behold, there was a great earthquake, and the sun became black as sackcloth, the full moon became like blood,

¹³ and the stars of the sky fell to the earth as the fig tree sheds its winter fruit when shaken by a gale.

¹⁴ The sky vanished like a scroll that is being rolled up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place.

¹⁵ Then the kings of the earth and the great ones and the generals and the rich and the powerful, and everyone, slave and free, hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains,

¹⁶ calling to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who is seated on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb,

¹⁷ for the great day of their wrath has come, and who can stand?"

Worshippers at 9:30 and 11:00, please continue at the closing hymn.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

The following questions help us engage with the sermon, music, and liturgy in this morning's worship service, and may be useful during personal devotions, group studies, and family worship.

1. Have you ever doubted the existence of God? Have you ever doubted the goodness of God? What is the difference between these two doubts?
2. Read Revelation 6.1-8. What do the four horsemen represent? What do these prophecies have to do with the judgment of God?
3. What does God's judgment have to do with justice? Why is the promise of justice such good news for our broken world?
4. Why is the coming Day of Judgment both a warning and promise?
5. Do you want Jesus to come again to judge the world and make all things new? Why or why not?
