

GLORY & GOODNESS

PCPC GLOBAL MISSIONS CONFERENCE

PARK CITIES PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
November 2, 2025

Welcome

Since its founding, Missions has been a defining priority of Park Cities Presbyterian Church. Whether you've attended one of our lunches, served alongside a mission partner, participated in a short-term mission trip, or reviewed our budget, you would quickly see our church is committed to Missions. We offer many opportunities for members to engage in this work to extend the Kingdom.

In the midst of our full fall ministry schedule, we are delighted for the opportunity to pause and remember that our Mission flows out of our worship. We were never meant to be busy people just doing missions but rather were meant to be with the God who is Himself missional. It is from our worship and fellowship with Him and His people that we are sent out to continue His Kingdom work. This weekend is a time to reflect on the intersection between our worship and the Mission God has given us at PCPC.

Jonty Rhodes

Jonty is married to Georgina, and between them, they have five children, 11 and under. Jonty is a church planter and minister of Christ Church Central Leeds, a Presbyterian church in the north of England. He also helps oversee church planting for the denomination. Jonty has written numerous books, including Man of Sorrows, King of Glory, and Covenants Made Simple.

Shane & Shane

After meeting in college, Shane & Shane began writing songs and traveling the country leading worship. More than 20 years later, they're writing more music than ever with no intention of slowing down. Their desire has always been to glorify the Lord by writing music that is biblically based, lyrically rich, and sonically engaging. Over the past few years, Shane & Shane have dedicated their lives to encouraging and equipping worship leaders and their teams through the work of The Worship Initiative.

Public Confession of Sin

Mr. Goebel

Our God, we praise You that we have been brought out of the kingdom of darkness into Your marvelous light.

May Your Spirit's perfect light penetrate into every crevice of our beings, making us more and more into the likeness
 of our Savior Jesus,
 in whom there is no darkness.

Lord, we lament how the shadows of darkness
 linger in us causing us to sin,
 keeping us from loving You and one another as we ought.

We have often been fooled into thinking that we have overcome a specific sin,
 only to find that the roots remain deep and strong.

Our relationships are filled with stress:
 grievances are not easily forgotten,
 love for others does not always come from a joyful and willing heart.

We long for purity of heart and mind,
 of affection and will.

We long for Your Spirit to bear in us
 the fruit of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

Please grant this to us for Your glory and for the good of Your Church and the world.

Private Confession

Words of Assurance and Pardon of the Gospel

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to Himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

2 Corinthians 5.17-19

Mr. Goebel 8:00
Pastor José Ricardo Escobar 9:30
Director, City to City Colombia
Iglesia Gracia Abundante Church
John David and Sarah 11:00

In the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by the hand of Haggai the prophet:

- ² "Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to all the remnant of the people, and say,
- ³ 'Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Is it not as nothing in your eyes?
- ⁴ Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, declares the LORD. Be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land, declares the LORD. Work, for I am with you, declares the LORD of hosts,
- ⁵ according to the covenant that I made with you when you came out of Egypt. My Spirit remains in your midst. Fear not.
- ⁶ For thus says the LORD of hosts: Yet once more, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land.
- ⁷ And I will shake all nations, so that the treasures of all nations shall come in, and I will fill this house with glory, says the LORD of hosts.
- ⁸ The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine, declares the LORD of hosts.
- ⁹ The latter glory of this house shall be greater than the former, says the LORD of hosts. And in this place I will give peace, declares the LORD of hosts."

Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life. Revelation 2.10

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

The following questions help us engage with the sermon, music, and liturgy in this morning's worship service, and may be useful during personal devotions, group studies, and family worship.

1. Haggai's audience looked at the small, unimpressive temple and asked, "Is this it?" When have you looked at your own spiritual life or church and thought the same? What emotions or assumptions drive that feeling?
2. Why do we tend to measure God's presence and blessing by visible success or size? How can faith reshape our sense of what "glory" looks like?
3. God tells His people to "be strong and work...for I am with you." What's the difference between "trying harder" and "working because God is with you"?
4. Haggai connects the Spirit's presence with the power to act. In your day to day life, what would it look like to actually believe the Holy Spirit lives and works in you?
5. Alec Motyer said, "Despondency says, 'I can't, therefore I won't.' Faith says, 'I can't, but He can, so I will.'" Where do you most need to replace "I can't" with "He can"?
6. The promise of a "greater glory" (v. 9) gave Israel reason to keep building. How does the hope of Christ's final temple (Rev. 21-22) change how you view the small, ordinary work you do now? Are their elements of your service that feel irrelevant?
7. Why do you think many Christians lose sight of the big, redemptive picture of what God is building? What practices help you keep it alive?
8. Jesus is the true temple who was torn down so that we could be God's dwelling place. How does His willingness to enter apparent weakness and failure encourage you when you feel your own work is small or unseen?

PCPC Extend Missions Fund

The PCPC Extend Missions Fund exists to advance the planting of new churches for the glory of God. Managed by the Global Missions Committee, this fund receives requests from our church's international partners and prayerfully seeks the Lord's direction for how these resources can be most strategically used to support the birth of new congregations around the world.

Global Missions Giving Highlights

Merchant City Church – Glasgow, Scotland

Pastors David Trimble and Neil Longwe lead this new church in the heart of Glasgow, seeking to fulfill the city's prayerful motto: "Let Glasgow flourish by the preaching of Your Word and the praising of Your name." Their mission is to connect creative, curious, and everyday people to Christ.

Teranga Village – Senegal

In partnership with the Evangelical Presbyterian Church of Senegal, Teranga Village will provide safe housing for dozens of girls from an unreached community, protecting them from trafficking and helping them flourish as children of God.

City to City – Latin America and Colombia

Led by longtime PCPC missionaries Ruth & Andres Garza and Pastor José Escobar, this ministry trains pastors for gospel-centered church planting. PCPC has participated in their training conferences and outreach in Cartagena, Colombia.

All future gifts will be reviewed by the Global Missions Committee, with consideration given to their strategic alignment and impact.

Thank you for prayerfully considering a gift beyond your regular giving to support this effort. We pray the Lord meets you as you seek His direction in responding to His Great Commission.
