Sorry, I am not one of your puppets you are going to control by threats !
I am not asking anything outrageous or starting arguments. I only ask which girls you are with so I can put them on my list.. I wouldn't have to ask if you talked to me.
I am going to continue to say and ask what I see fit and reasonable. I value being able to be honest and open with you and not having to censor our conversations. if I have to make small talk as if you were a stranger and be stressed every time I talk to you because one of the "forbidden topics" might come up or have to walk around the gigantic elephant in the room and not point it out, than not talking doesn't sound that much worse

If I hear one more question about girls I will nor speak to you for a week , second time a month, I know you are having your period , but that is not my fault

What else is there..all you say is "what's exciting" and I am to come up with something that fits all your criteria and doesn't cause a reaction... when I talk about flying or physics you yell because it 'about me' when I ask about the cases you can't tell me anything, I don't know what else you do. You don't tell me anything. Now talk about girls is an issue. If you continue to restrict what I am allowed to talk about we'll end up discussing the weather..

That is your entire communication , no other topics interest, no questions no interrogations , you are breaking the understanding it is just a back door way to continue your preoccupation with pettiness .
