i'll finish writing out the email tomorrow. sorry, my day was so hectic with other work and the stupid logistics of being homeless that i am now just plain exhausted. any attempt at articulateness will, i fear, just hurt.

but the thing i am outlining is exciting and big, perhaps. and i promise you: tomorrow.

again, i'm sorry - trust me, the feeling that i might even toe the line of disappointing you is punishment enough. i am hoping (betting even) that you have millions of green and tons of pink to distract you from my negligence in the mean time.
pleasant dreams.

Hi. I'll be back in new york in about an hour (was away since wed). Started to write you long email about ideas but thought it would be easier to talk w you so was sorry to have missed you. I can continue to write it out or we can discuss first.

Also would like to get the recording of dr. axel interview so I can start to work on that for you. Again though it would be great to bounce a few ideas off

Brought to you by the letter G and the number 1...
