Please copy Je I do not have his email with me. My source thinks he has the deal completed. As I advised Je earlier the deal was for 1.8m. I am trying to push it up a little. I think I can get. A little more and Quick close. Should know more later today or Friday with time zone changes. Keep in mind it is International I advised them they need to set up a trust to do the deal so we are paid and not dragged into the title transfer issues etc.
