ouch! I'm glad your cut is on the inside for looks reasons but for blwoing your nose or just anything that hurts.

Yes [REDACTED] team had beat the team they played last night easily. The other team played well and we missed like 20 shots that we tried for...had we made them we would have blwon them out of the water...it's all ok though

I wouldn't get to Jean George till 7:30 I'm sure..i would love to do that but lets do it on a night that i am working from home and can meet you earlier! like 6pm! We need that on our TO DO list bummer about [REDACTED] loss in the finals AGAIN. . . what a drag! Was it a team they beat before?

Noses bleed terribly! I'm sure it was very dramatic. . . lots of blood is scary!
Lola accidentalaly bit my nose this weekend and pulled back as she did so with her needle pointed teeth and I hit the roof! It hurt (and still does) soooo bad! I'm glad it is the inside of my nose that looks yucky -- you really can't see it just to look at me. But it's ugly on the inside -- I'm not letting her get that close to my face now and I warned the kids too!

we'll talk more tonight. . . I hope its not a monsoon! Do you want to think about going to Jean George instead??? If it's a place [REDACTED] won't go to, at least you should!. . .???

So sorry I have not answers this. I have been crazy busy with work non stop! And throw in the house stuff I am truly about to lose my mind. I feel so I edge with everything!

Anyway we can discuss tonight So cool you sat next to Ben stiller. I love him!! This makes two lazy nice Sundays in a row for you!! How nice enjoy them and take them when you can!! We had a great weekend of sports and sat night we went to the Greenwich country club with 2 other couples (busby's and Milligan's. you've met both. Busby's paid-their club- and they said to pay back for all the parties we have invited them to which is true!)

[REDACTED] team lost last night by one point. Such a drag. Once again this team has won every game so it was tough. Not as tough as the one in [REDACTED] but still tough. Poor [REDACTED] got banged in the nose and was gushing blood! Couldn't play the last 4 min of game and blood was everywhere! He is fine though.

Look forward to tonight. I made reservations for 7pm because apparently they were turning pp away last wed. But who knows we may want to sit at the bar! We will see

Hi there. How did the weekend go for you guys? I'm sure [REDACTED] is very 'heavy' right now.

[REDACTED] and I went out with another couple (the guy he coached with for [REDACTED] flag football team and his wife -- very nice people).
We went to Truck right in bedford. . . . i sat next to Ben Stiller and his wife!!! It was surreal!

anyway, I was overserved in every way. . . food and wine. I slept waaaaaay in on Sunday. Amazingly, I felt ok - just tired. I lounged around, made banana bread and lounged around some more. . . it was actually very nice. [REDACTED] came over [REDACTED] so [REDACTED] we were taken care of all day. [REDACTED] didn't get up until about 1 and that made it 2 pm! He had homework to do, so I was pretty much just fine sitting on the sofa with a fire in the fireplace and reading my shape magazine.

what did you guys do?
