Hello Lesley,

Just wanted to let you know the care package should be there any day if not already and has homemade cookies in it. They are super healthy and do not have any dairy in them so they will last-if when you get them you refrigerate them till next Tuesday.

If Jeffrey is not around please enjoy them and I will make more next time. The other store bought cookies are fine. I was telling him there were better choices for an Oreo cookie and thought I would send them.

Thanks for your help, Dawn💎
