Hey Brian! No worries at all!! Completely understand. [REDACTED] told me you had communicated with him...I was sad when I heard you wouldn't make it, but like I said, completely understand. We will have another party (maybe superbowl?) and you are on our list... The party was great.. tons of food and I drank probably too much! We had 13 kids which was frightening ;) We stayed up till midnight with only one guest hanging with us (Johnny, [REDACTED]) Then I promptly went to bed! I need to download pics and i will send...

I hope you feel better asap and we will see you on the restaurant circuit soon I'm sure.

(Oh! and I shrink wrapped some left over pizza! really a cool machine!)
