That totally scared me! It's been so long since I planned all this Chicago stuff I almost had a heart attack. I'm glad you stay on top of this kind of thing! And I'm really glad I had it correct! But DO always ask me!!

Les, I see that the Pritzker event is at the "Hyatt Center". Do you have the confirmed address for that? I looked online and I see a Hyatt Center at 71 South Wacker Drive Chicago, IL 60606 but want to make sure that's the correct address so there is no confusion where JE needs to go in the morning.
