Les - when Nancy took the kids, I didn't go. . . it was a little young for them (I think they went last year -- it was the first year that it opened). They still enjoyed it -- it was something to do, but it wasn't their favorite.

YES! last night was a lot of fun -- very relaxed --- cute place, but too much $$ -- and the second part at Luis was good too. Wish I hadn't eaten so much. . . oh well. At least we knew not to get desert! I went straight to bed.

Thank you SO much for the evening :) I really do appreciate the freebie -- but you know I'd pay just to be with you too! It's important and nice to spend time together
