Subject: flight log and a question for you!

Hi Larry....flight log for the JE from July 21 trip from island to NY?

Question for you: When flying a plane in an electrical storm and lots of bumping and extreme drops in the air...anything to be worried about? Our flight home from the Bahamas on Sunday was SO frightening...people were crying and screaming...my poor little boy was so scared..and so was I but tried to keep it together for him! Tell me it is all no big deal :) ???
