Hey!!! I'm on an airplane about to take off for Orlando!!! A place I hope you get to take your son in a few years!! I've been thinking of you and hope your pregnancy has been going well! So happy for you. Hang in there over the next weeks! All your hard work is so worth it! I remember thinking 'gosh I can't wait for someone else to carry this baby around' then once I had Ty I wanted to carry and hold him all the time!!! I'll pass along your hellos! Taking off!! Keep in touch! Lesley

Hi Lesley!

Just wanted to drop a note and say hello and see how you were doing!? Things are going well here, I'm 33 weeks pregnant now - the end is near!

Hope things are well and please tell Jeffrey I said hello as well as others in the office!

xoxo
