

To: [REDACTED]
From: Lesley Groff
Sent: Wed 3/28/2018 11:58:51 AM Subject: Re: Courses

Hi [REDACTED]. I did not do the training as I do not travel with Jeffrey. But all his traveling assistants did complete the CPR/AED training. We hired a certified CPR/AED instructor to come to Jeffrey's home and teach his assistants and house staff (a total of about 12 people)...I have reached out to the women who we hired to see if she has any materials on line she could send me. I hope to hear from her soon...will let you know!
Paramedic's are people we should all be truly thankful for! I could never do it! I appreciate that others can be so dutiful under pressure! Doctors, nurses, emergency room workers

On Mar 26, 2018, at 7:23 PM, [REDACTED] wrote:

Oh okay, thank you! Maybe you have any materials ... did you also do this training? Were there any other courses he had everyone do?
I wanted to work as a paramedic when I was smaller, who knows maybe :D

Thank you :) <3

Cheers,
[REDACTED]

On 27 Mar 2018, at 01:00, Lesley Groff <[REDACTED]> wrote:

[REDACTED] I think I know what Jeffrey was referring to now!!...he had all his assistants learn CPR/AED training, defibrillator training, etc!...I thought you specifically wanted to work in an ambulance...hang on ...let me see if I can find anything to help you...
...and you are too kind...I love what I do for Jeffrey!
...I don't need a thing from the EU!! but you are sweet to ask...
I'll be in touch...

On Mar 26, 2018, at 6:09 PM, [REDACTED] wrote:

Thank you that is amazing! I will check them! Actually when I looked through the courses in America you have so many of them there. Very developed industry. Also saw the PPA but they require previous education. :(

I am sorry, I thought you know people who have taken them, Jeffrey said that all his assistants usually go through it... maybe I misunderstood. But I really appreciate that you looked through the courses...

This is an addition for my current job, but it is always great to be able to help people and save lives.

Thank you for the swimming suit suggestion and suggestion for the work. :) would like to become as good as you are at it.

Do you have something from the EU that you really like?

Cheers,

On 26 Mar 2018, at 23:55, Lesley Groff <[REDACTED]> wrote:

Hi [REDACTED]...! Congratulations on your life changes! Hope you enjoy Hungary and the new jobs...

Were you a paramedic before you moved or is this a new career path you are interested in? My only suggestion is to check some on line courses where you are? I found the below website which looks good for the US...

<http://www.nmetc.com/online-paramedic-programs.php>

I see with the above on line course you are required to have 2 internships with a certain amount of hours you must accomplish...it says you can complete these internships near your home (if you were in the states) or you would have to travel to Massachusetts to complete their clinical & field rotations. I'm sure the internet must have some good web sites in Hungary. (?) I wish I could help you more, but I actually do not know of anyone who has taken a paramedics course. The Internet is a great resource ...see what you can find!

I just found the below for International EMS training...and it states it has accreditation from University of Pecs, Hungary! maybe check this out?

<http://www.ppa-int.com/>

On to swim suits! I think simple is always good...the ones with lots of embellishments are not needed in my opinion. classic triangle top and scoop bottom or side string bottom always are a good call on any figure. !!! (at least that is what I think :)

https://www.venus.com/viewproduct.aspx?BRANCH=24~217~&ProductDisplayID=34084&clr=BKK&sc=XWEBGPF18FS&cm_mmc=PLA-_-Google-_-UN-BKT_G&gclid=Cj0KCQjwOLVBRCZARIsADPLtJ2Nhp7ldvKXLvTMplGWAyStY_7-R-bG32G3Katlw32s7Fih2TyEqkaAtZ_EALw_wcB my best suggestion for you in your assistant position is to use the reminders in your calendar!! I couldn't do my job without them!! I use Google Calendar it works great! :)

On Mar 26, 2018, at 11:09 AM,

[REDACTED]

wrote:

Thank you!

Hope it is not much work for you, I just thought that you might know what his other assistants and where are doing. Have you done it yourself?

I am trying to find what they have in Hungary (I live now there, changed my job), but only paramedics with previous experience at the moment. Currently also working as an assistant for one woman. I am amazed how you handle so perfectly this 24/7 work. Haha

Always fun :)

Cheers,
[REDACTED]

On 26 Mar 2018, at 16:37, Lesley Groff <[REDACTED]>
wrote:

Hi [REDACTED]!! Let me
do some research and I will get back to you on all!!
[REDACTED]

Sent from my iPhone

On Mar 26, 2018, at 9:16 AM, [REDACTED] [REDACTED]@
[REDACTED] wrote:

Dear
Lesley,

Hope you are doing good and everything is going as planne d and wonde rful! :)
I talked to Jeffrey
and he said that I could get some materia ls from some of his assista nts that have studied the paramedic

courses, maybe you have any?
Maybe
you know where they usually do these trainings because in EU
they usually ask previous experience in medicine.

Would really appreciate that! Thank you :)) Also any other of your suggestions of what could be useful to learn I would really appreci ate since you know Jeffrey

the best.
He gave me some tips, but always better
to plan already more for the future.

Still looking forward to meet you in person some day!

ps. I previously asked you about the swimming suits, I had to go to work and had no time to think about
it. but I really appreci ate you offer to suggest someth ing.
You

are amazin
g. <3

Love

--

.