Ok, thank you. That is a good point. Any specific professor you have in mind?
I have a former professor of Harvard Law School working at my office who could probably write me a recommendation, maybe help even further.
I noticed that you just ignore some of my questions, according to my experience with other people that have very limited time, usually ignorance is equal to a negative answer.

Is it really new?
I want to get into Harvard, Columbia=2C NYU or maybe Stanford.
I think I should use the argument&nbs=;that I would like to use my LL.M. studies to do some research an= to find a topic in comparative law for my PhD at my university in =ienna. I could try to get the head of the comparative law faculty i= Vienna to write me a recommendation. What do you think?
