Hello dear Jeffrey,

how are you? how do you feel in New york? i hope you're having a good time there! I came back from Paris with a new inspiration! Thank you one more time!

By the way, I gave your advise to Valdas about dj Tiesto, he took it seriously and yesterday he went to Ryga to meet them! we will have dj Tiesto next summer!

One more interesting thing...my boyfriend came up with very big business opportunity. if you remember he works with theater and he is also promotes events, buys and sells artists in east Europe.

As this company is not so big its impossible to buy such a big artists like Robby Williams. In Baltic's there is only one chance to make real money from this business is to organize that kind of event in Estonia, Talin.

Regarding company has all the necessary experience, contacts and partners to organize these events, but the problem is that the company has no power to invite Robby Williams (most wanted!), because the company has made the small and medium scale artists and has too little reference.

Wouldn't be impolite to ask you if you know the right people who could help to buy Robby Williams? Only the personal contact could help us.

You can also take a look and evaluate company's activity <http://www.baltic-concert.com/>

Thank you.

big hug and kiss!
