Dear Jeffrey,

Here is the link to the indoor skydiving website:

The wind tunnel is located about 20 minutes drive from the UES. Highly recommend! As I've mentioned before after a flying session the body feels toned and massaged with less gravity and the serotonin level is significantly elevated! Spinning in the air is optional and doesn't usually happen if not requested and all the concerns are always discussed prior to the session.

I was very happy to meet you yesterday, thank you for creating the spot for me in your schedule! Enjoy your time wherever you decide to go and I hope to see you very soon!
