This is what I mean by you not being helpful. It would have been simple to call this morning and say what should I do. The fact that you have yet to be helpful is always dealt with - you are just trying to start a fight . No concrete response but an attack . I wanted to talk to [REDACTED] before you saw her so that you could sat these things to her. You have yet to deal with it . Your suggestion about dealing [REDACTED] was typical. -- you have no facts just your perception of what happens at the office but feel you have an answer .I love you -- why don't you tell me how helpful you have been -or is that also going to be seen ad an attack
