

FALL GUIDE 2023

Park Cities Presbyterian Church exists to extend the transforming presence of the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ in Dallas and to the world.

Welcome

TO PARK CITIES PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

I want to welcome you to PCPC. We know there's a lot in this Fall Guide, but we hope it's more than a menu, more than a flood of information. We want to shepherd you toward being a healthy member or participant in the life of our church.

As you consider where the Lord is calling you to connect, abide, and extend, our hope is that you will:

- Join us regularly in corporate worship on Sundays.
- Find a community that makes the big church smaller and helps you become more like Jesus (see the "Connect" section in this guide).
- Find a way to serve the Lord inside or outside the walls of the church (see the "Extend" section in this guide).

Some of our people get involved in more than one smaller community. Some of our people find more than one way to serve. It is not our desire that you would do everything, but that the Lord would lead you to a few things that help you connect, abide, and extend. If you can only do one thing, we hope that you'll prioritize the joy of worshipping the Lord together on Sunday morning.

Mark Davis
SENIOR PASTOR

– Mark Davis, Senior Pastor

SUNDAYS AT PCPC

Three corporate worship services are held Sunday mornings for all ages at 8:00 a.m. (Chapel), 9:30 a.m. & 11:00 a.m. (Sanctuary).

*To all who are spiritually weary
and seek rest;
to all who mourn
and long for comfort;
to all who struggle and
desire victory;
to all who sin and
need a Savior;
to all who are
strangers and
want fellowship;
to all who hunger
and thirst after
righteousness;
and to all who
will come, this church opens
wide her doors
and offers welcome in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.*

Connect to Christ

AND ONE ANOTHER

In John 15, Jesus gives us a beautiful vision of a healthy group of believers. Drawing from the rich biblical imagery of God's people being like a vineyard, Jesus reveals Himself as "the true vine," the one in whom true life is found (v. 1). He warns that apart from Him we are fruitless, helpless, and condemned (vv. 5-7). But He also promises that all who connect to Him by faith will be united to Him, bear fruit through Him, and experience fullness of joy (vv. 3-4, 11).

If we are connected to Jesus, the true vine, we are also immediately and intimately connected with every other believer as fellow branches (v. 5). For us as a church, this means the first and most foundational thing we do is to be God's means to connect people to Christ and His Church personally.

Abide in Christ

The most repeated word in John 15 is, "abide." Abide means to dwell, to live with. By grace through faith in Jesus Christ, we are inseparably united with Christ and called to a life-long journey of growing in Him. Christian formation cultivates an abiding life in Christ by participating in the work of God's free grace. Our hope for the people of Park Cities Presbyterian Church is that through their time in this community their lives will abide more deeply in Christ, so that their minds are filled with the truth and beauty of Christ, their hearts are captivated by the love of God, and their lives joyfully extend, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, the transforming presence of the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ in Dallas and to the world.

Scripture and prayer?*

Extend Christ

One of the great surprises of John 15 is that Jesus entrusts His mission as the vine to us as branches. Just as the Father appointed Him, so now Jesus has appointed us (vv. 15-16). This means extending His self-sacrificial love to one another (vv. 12-13, 17). And this means going out to proclaim that the Kingdom of God has come in Jesus Christ, and to pray that God would bear much fruit through us (vv. 15-16). For us as a church, this means the third and most far-reaching thing we do is to extend Christ.

DEEP LIGHT PODCAST

Deep Light is a space for community, healing, hope, and education around topics of rescue and growth. This fall, our Deep Light series will focus on "limitations." Limitations can be emotional, physical, mental, vocational, or relational. We all have them, and rather than seeing them as a fault, they should lead us to greater dependence on the Lord.

Search "Deep Light Podcast" on your favorite platform or scan QR code to visit pcpc.org/deeplight/.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST - SERMON SERIES

Of all the books of the Bible, perhaps the most captivating and at times the most confusing is the book of Revelation. How are we to understand this strange and mysterious book filled with numbers and images and beasts and a Lamb? What is the book of Revelation all about? One reason for our confusion is that we often approach the Bible with the wrong question. The primary question we should ask the book of Revelation to answer is not "what" but "who." Who is the book of Revelation all about? From the first verse to the last, the book of Revelation is all about Jesus Christ. He is the Alpha and the Omega, the Lion and the Lamb, the Bridegroom who is coming for His Bride, and the King who will one day return to make all things new. This fall, join us on Sunday mornings for our sermon series on The Revelation of Jesus Christ.

WINTERGRACE 2024

Please be sure to save the date for our annual WinterGrace event the weekend of February 3-4, 2024. WinterGrace is an on-campus retreat for our whole congregation to be refreshed in God's grace through fellowship, learning, music, and worship. This year our theme will be, "God's Grace in Our Suffering," and we are excited that singer-songwriter and author Andrew Peterson will be with us for the weekend.
