

Lesson Two: Colossians 1:9-14

David Williams - September 21, 2021

⁹ And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, ¹⁰ so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him: bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God; ¹¹ being strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy; ¹² giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. ¹³ He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, ¹⁴ in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Table Discussion Questions

1. If God already knows everything, then why do we pray at all?
2. Many approach God's will as an unknowable mystery, but the scripture teaches us exactly what God's will is. What are some things we know are God's will?
3. What are the dangers of only being acquainted with the Lord, and not knowing Him?
4. In what ways does the world attempt to co-opt Christianity?
